

Pilot Mound Hockey Academy

PMHA

Coming to Pilot Mound for the 2015 / 2016 Season

If you are a Midget age player serious about advancing your hockey career you should consider the Pilot Mound Hockey Academy

Pilot Mound now offers a new facility with the resources necessary for player development. The local community is committed to the program and development of the student athletes. It offers an affordable alternative to other academies in Western Canada.

A constant focus on the academic standing and the advancement of each student athlete.

Things to Consider:

Experienced coaching staff led by Rod Collins with over 30 years of coaching and teaching experience and a vast network of contacts in the hockey world

Daily ice sessions with the focus on skill development and teaching the players how to act instinctively to situations in the game

Weekly off ice strength and conditioning programs

50 - 60 game schedule where players will be exposed to a variety of competitive situations

The PMHA will be holding a tryout & informational camp at Black Jack Arena in Pilot Mound, MB on April 4th. Registration is at 9:30am. Fee $50 (incl. lunch)
